REACT CONF ARMENIA 2019

Yerevan, Armenia: Tech Events Armenia announces its next conference in Yerevan, Armenia. React Conf Armenia 2019 is going to take place at Russian-Armenian University on May 25, 2019. It will bring together many international and local React and React Native professionals and IT companies from Armenia and other countries.

React Conf Armenia 2019 will include not only lectures and talks, but also many workshops and competitions. The conference is a good opportunity for the participants to obtain new knowledge and broaden their network.

As the conference partners with a number of big IT companies, many IT professionals will have a chance to meet company representatives, learn about their vacancies and get job offers.
